REMOVAL NOTICE.

Finding our present quarters entirely too small for our business, we will move to the room recently used by the Bowling Alley, Court House Square, on and after Tuesday, May 1st. It is our aim to have the most complete Shoe Store in the City. We have added greatly to our present line, and feel justified in saying that any and all who will inspect our different lines will bear us out in our assertions.

MATTERS MATRIMONIAL.

The Wedding Belles, Announcements, Cupid's Mischief, HOWE-SWEARINGEN.

Mr. Julian Robert Howe and Miss Nancy Marie Swearingen, two well known young society people of this city, stole a march on their many friends Wednesday by being married quietly in Covington. They were accompanied by Mr. James Ingels and Miss Grace Swearingen, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. J. I. Blackburn at his residence on East Third street.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. W. G. Swearingen, of Mt. Airy avenue, and is quite a handsome young lady who has many admirers. Mr. Howe is a very worthy young business man of this city, and is connected with the Hotel Windsor. He is a son of Mr. Danlap Howe, of Olathe.

Mr. Howe and bride will live at the Windsor. The news of their marriage is a source of much happiness to their friends.

Mr. F. Lowry, of Bourbon, who lately bought a farm near Perry, Oklahoma, was married last week to a widow who has one son. They will live in Oklahoma.

Will Wear Badges.

Enumerators for the census in June will be furnished with badges by the Government, which are to be worn in a conspicuous place, so as to be plainly seen, and will be their credentials for gathering their statistics. These badges will be made of German silver, and bear the words "United States Census, 1900." An order has already been placed for 80,000 of these badges by the directors of the census.

SHORT NEWS STORIES.

Brief Paragraphs About Important Happenings.

There are nineteen divorce suits on the docket of the Circuit Court at Owensboro.

Jack Chinn's $25,000 damage suit against Mrs. Banta, of Frankfort, has been dismissed.

A shower of green bugs struck Louisville Monday night. The Weather Bureau estimates that 200 bushels of the bugs were seen on the streets.

Kenneth Cassidy and Gus and Clark Morgan, of Fayette county, left Tuesday for Oklahoma Territory in a covered wagon, a la "Forty-niners."

Sunday, June 3, will be the ninety-second anniversary of the birth of Jefferson Davis, and will be observed as "Memorial Day" by the Confederate veterans attending the big reunion at Louisville.

Miss Sallie Greenville, of St. Louis, has claimed the ground occupied by the city of Maysville, and threatens to bring suit to have the town moved. She claims to be the only heir of John Waller, who died without a will.

Ninety-three million five hundred thousand persons are suffering from cholera and famine in India and relief is being shipped to but five millions. The vast sums contributed throughout the world are said to be but a drop in the ocean when compared with what is necessary.

Mary Ward, a peddler who is known as "Apple Mary," was arrested for begging in New York the other day, and was found to have twenty-five pounds of money in her basket. Memorandums found on her showed that she had thousands of dollars in the banks. She made it in speculating on tips given her by brokers.

Kentucky Chautauqua.

The fourteenth annual session of the Kentucky Chautauqua will be held at Woodland Park, Lexington, Ky., June 26 to July 6. A splendid program has been arranged that will surpass any yet given. Some of the most notable lecturers and entertainers in America have been engaged. A great musical program will be presented, and many new and special features. The detailed program will be mailed to any address upon application to Chas. Scott, Business Manager, Lexington, Ky.

Will Meet At Estill.

The National Fox Hunters' Association was so well pleased with Estill Springs last Fall that the Executive Committee has selected Estill as the place for the next meeting, which will be held on November 12th. The Derby will be run on the 13th.

Lightning's Work.

At the funeral of Mrs. Richard Ferguson in Louisville Tuesday afternoon a blinding flash of lightning occurred just as the dirt was being thrown in the grave. Miss Mattie Ferguson and a child who were seated in a carriage, were badly shocked, and the driver was rendered unconscious. James Downey, a colored helper, was also shocked and burned by the bolt. The deceased was struck by lightning twenty years ago.

Cal. J. Piper, twenty-four, was killed Tuesday by lightning while riding a mule near Bowling Green.

Near Franklin, Ky., Sam Chambers was killed by lightning while driving a load of hay under a shed.

Wm. Heidrich and Louis Moorman, of Covington, took refuge under a tree during a storm Tuesday and both were killed by lightning.

H. F. Hillenmeyer, the Lexington nurseryman, says that the frosts this week have not damaged the fruit and vegetables much. He says the prospect for fruit this year is very flattering.

"Sweet Bells Jangled Out of Tune and Harsh."

Shakespeare's description fits thousands of women. They are cross, despondent, sickly, nervous—a burden to themselves and their families. Their sweet dispositions are gone, and they, like the bells, seem sadly out of tune. But there is a remedy. They can use

McELREE'S

Wine of Cardui

It brings health to the womanly organism, and health there means well-poised nerves, calmness, strength. It restores womanly vigor and power. It tones up the nerves which suffering and disease have shattered. It is the most perfect remedy ever devised to restore weak women to perfect health, and to make them attractive and happy. $1.00 at all druggists.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

REV. J. W. SMITH, Camden, S. C., says: "My wife used Wine of Cardui at home for falling of the womb and it entirely cured her."
